

FLORA OF BRAZIL
Federal District

No. R. 2927

Utricularia

In the area of the Corrego Cabeça de Veado c. 9.5 km SSE of Brasília TV Tower

Small annual herb. Some specimens still have basal rosettes of very small leaves but in others these have disappeared.

Corollas ranging from very pale lilac to fairly dark violet with a yellow patch of varying intensity in the throat.

Taller plants growing amongst vegetation of damp campo limpo, the smaller ones on the Date: 25.4.1976 side of a path running through the coll.: J A Ratter campo. Damp black soil.