

FLORA OF BELIZE

No. R. 6581

Byrsonima crassifolia (L.) Kunth

Vernacular name: Craboo

Belize District. Gale's Point (sea to Quashie Trap lagoon) seaward end, c. 2 km S of Bar River mouth, Transect 2, c. 17°13'N 88°18'W.

On the margin of a hydrologic savanna just landward of thicket vegetation at the edge of the beach.

Wide-crowned tree, 4.5 m tall. Bark greyish, with characteristic Byrsonima pattern. Flowers yellow. Ripe fruits yellow, edible and sold commercially.

Date: 26 7 1991

Coll.: J.A. Ratter, R. Atkinson,
H.A. Bisset & S. Bridgewater