

FLORA OF BRAZIL
State of Pará

No. R. 6928

Salvertia convallariodora St. Hil.

7-8km from Alter do Chão on the Santarém road, c. 2°29'S 54°55'W.

In cerrado.

Tree, 6m tall, 12cm dbh. Bark grey, vertically furrowed. Wood extremely weak. Calyx bright yellow-green. Petals waxy white with small salmon-pink spots. Anther cream, marked with orange, turning orange-brown with age. Flowers with strong pleasant scent and being visited by a humming bird.

Date: 4 x 1993

Coll.: J.A. Ratter, Tânia Sanaiotti & Raimundo Vasconcelos da Sousa.