

FLORA OF BRAZIL
State of Tocantins

No. R7941v

Alibertia

Vernacular Names: Marmelada do cachorro, Canela de velha

32km from Natividade on the road to Almas, 11°41'S
47°29'W, alt. 360m.

In mesotrophic cerradão.

Tree with three diverging trunks from ground level, largest 6m tall and 10cm dbh. Trunks dissected into deep spirally running lobes. Bark pale brown, vertically striated (rather like an old lilac tree) and detaching in long vertical sheets.

8 xi 1997

Coll: J.A. Ratter, S. Bridgewater & J. Fonsêca Filho.